“Consider Jesus”

Intro: In presenting the _______ of Nazareth to the Hebrew peoples as their long-awaited for ________, there would be many unique challenges that needed to be met intelligently.

A. It was necessary that the supremacy of Jesus Christ _______ the Old be shown. It had to be irrefutably proven that Jesus is the Superior, ________ One to whom the whole of the Old pointed, of whom the Old in its entirety spoke, that He is the Expected One.

B. For the Hebrew people it must also be shown that _______ is ________ than Moses, who was very great.

I. The Hebrew Author, recording the Spirit-breathed Words of God, exhorts us to ________ Jesus as the true Savior by intentionally and ever-consciously making ______ ________ the object of our faith.

A. As those who are ______ brethren, partakers of a ______ ________ calling, so are we set apart and called to consider Jesus.

B. Jesus alone is the _______ and High ________ of our confession.

   1. How have we come to the confession of the Christian ________ – is it not ________ Christ ________ the Apostle sent of God from heaven and the High Priest who alone mediates between God and man? ________ Him!

II. Showing that Jesus is the One to be considered, the Author begins to speak of the supremacy of _______ _______ ________.

   A. In eternity past God the Father _______ Jesus to be the Apostle and High Priest of our confession and so was Jesus ______ to Him in these and all things.

   B. In showing the superiority of Jesus over Moses, we find that Jesus was faithful ___ ______ while Moses was faithful ___ God’s ________.

      1. We must consider Jesus for He ________ _______ of more glory than Moses, for while Moses was faithful in all the house, Jesus is the ________ of that house!
C. Jesus is _____________ to Moses for not only is He the builder of the household of God, of which Moses is a member, but He is the _____________ ___ _____ things!

D. Moses was faithful in all the Lord’s house as a servant but Jesus is the ________________ One for He was faithful as the ____! Amen!

E. We must consider Jesus for ____ are _______ house.

III. Those who rightly consider Jesus ________ ________ to their confidence and the boast of their hope firm until the end. They are those who show that they are His house!

A. Those who truly hold fast to their confidence ___________ __ __________, for He is their hope. They do not hope in their ability to keep the Law but in the One who fulfilled the Law perfectly, whose righteousness is credited them.

Closing: Let us therefore ____________ Jesus!

A. W. Pink wrote, “... as great as was Moses, the Holy Spirit in this section of Hebrews calls upon us to consider One who so far excelled him as the heavens are above the earth. First, Christ was the immeasurable superior of Moses in His own person: Moses was a man of God, _____________ was _______ Himself. Moses was the fallen descendant of Adam, conceived in sin and shapen in iniquity; Christ was sinless, impeccable, ________.”

Indeed! Moses was a prophet through whom God gave the Law, but Jesus is _____ Prophet, Apostle and High Priest who is _____ way, _____ truth and _____ life, through whom alone men may come to God. Moses was a servant, Jesus is the _______ Therefore, let us hold fast to Jesus, the great and only hope of our salvation. The church’s one foundation is Jesus Christ the Lord! And all who consider Him alone will be saved.
