“To Him Who Is Able”

Intro: It is with grateful hearts that we come to the close of our _________ of the Book of Jude. It is my sincere prayer that our study of God’s Word has _____________ your soul with life and faith in the one true faith.

A. On this 12th teaching from Jude as we come to the close of the letter we find a most favored doxology of the New Testament. But here, family, not only must we appreciate this doxology for what it is but also as one filled with magnificent ________________, meant to assure us in our __________ _______ and the unshakeable salvation with which He saved us, bringing us to worship Him for who He is.

B. Of these last verses D. Edmond Hiebert wrote: “Jude’s closing doxology is rightly acclaimed as one of the grandest in all the New Testament. It is the fitting capstone of the epistle eloquently reminding his troubled readers that their __________ _________________ lies in the sovereign power of God. It lifts the thoughts from earthly conflicts with which the author has been compelled to busy himself, up to the heavenly realms, where _________ ___ enthroned amidst eternal might and honor.”

I. _______ alone is to be _____________!

A. Our Almighty God is the ________ who __________ us!

1. He alone is able to keep us __________ _________________.
   a. “As God is all-powerful ____ ___ ___________ to keep you from stumbling.”

2. Our Father, in all His omnipotence is able “to __________ _______ stand!”
   a. We have been clothed in the clean clothes of Christ’s righteousness, and with our Almighty Father having kept us from stumbling, on that Day _____ will _____________ before His full and radiant presence without spot or wrinkle or any such things, but holy and blameless in His sight, accepting us even as He accepts His only begotten Son! Our __________ __________ bring this about!

b. What a ________ of _________________ that will be!
II. God alone ____ and _______ ____ glorified – and that from our own lips!

A. We have ______ God and He is our ____________!

B. As Romans 5:8-11 declares we shall be saved from the wrath of God ______________ _______________ Christ our Lord. And as we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved by His life. And so, we ___________ _______ through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.

C. Church, let us recognize and credit the __________ of God to God! He is glory, and by His grace toward us it is our honor to recognize His glory, ascribing it ___ _______!

D. Our God is majestic in power, holiness, the ________________ who reigns with absolute and sovereign control. It is not wonder that the psalmist sang saying twice in the 8th Song saying, “O Lord, our Lord, How majestic is Thy name in all the earth, …” God is the Majesty who keeps you! _______________ Him!

E. His sovereign rule has no limit – His _______________ is complete!
_______________ Him!

F. ________________ God possesses the freedom to do as He wills and He will do as He wills – and since He is Holy all that He wills is perfect, right and holy! He is the Sovereign and absolute _________________! Lift up His name!

G. Let it be known that these qualities of our God’s person are eternal for ____ ____ the great “__ ______!”

Closing: Dear church, this is your God! He is the God who keep you!
______________ Him! ________.
