“Every Word of God is Tested”

Intro: Having completed our study of the sections of the ____________ that are attributed to Solomon this last Lord’s Day, this morning we enter into the 30th chapter which is attributed to Agur. As God employed various individuals for the pronouncing of His Word we recognize that all Scripture is ______________ ______________.

I. This 30th chapter of Proverbs is the divine ________________ of God spoken by one of the chosen wise men of God. These are God-breathed Words and therefore profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness; that we the people ___ ________ may be adequate, equipped for every good work.

A. In observation of Agur and on this side of the cross we learn: Those whom God makes wise unto ________________, who come into the truth of who He is, come to realize the awful yet “glory to God alone” truth of who they once were. Comprehending the totality of the depravity from which _____ by His sovereign __________ saved them they realize that they did not seek Him but it was He who effectually called them to Himself; and that they would not have so much as known His name nor the name of His _______ had He not freely revealed Himself to them through His _______ by His __________. To know this is to possess divine wisdom!

B. The saved wise ________________ the Lord at His Word knowing that _____ ________ is tried and tested, infallible and inerrant. And entrusting themselves to Him they find Him to be their Hiding Place, Strong Tower, City of Refuge, Mighty Fortress, Shield and Defender. As it is said in Romans 9:33; 10:11 & I Peter 2:6, “Whoever believes in Him will not be disappointed!”
C. Wisdom desires to ______ the Word of _____ with absolute accuracy. Knowing God has abundantly supplied our need for life and godliness through a true ___________ knowledge of Him, they also know that their every need is sufficiently supplied. These seek no addendum to the Word of God – and that is ______!

Closing: ______ now the tested Word of _____ and believe: Romans 10:8-13, “... ‘The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart’ - that is, the word of faith which we are preaching, 9 that if you confess with your mouth Jesus as Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved; 10 for with the heart man believes, resulting in righteousness, and with the mouth he confesses, resulting in salvation. 11 For the Scripture says, ‘Whoever __________ in Him will not be disappointed.’ 12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, abounding in riches for all who call upon Him; 13 for ‘Whoever will ____ upon the name of the Lord will be saved.’”

In the light of the knowledge of God and His Word humble yourself before Him. Confessing your sin and spiritual inability, call upon the name of the Lord __________ Christ and you will be _________.
