

“Things Which Are Fitting” Pt. II

Intro: Our present text calls the older women to _____ the younger women to _____ God by applying the truth of Christ’s saving grace to their lives in real, _____ ways as are fitting sound doctrine. By this the women serve God as members in His household.

A. Titus 2:4-5 teaches us of the godly character sound _____ is to _____ and be taught the younger women.

I. _____ produces godly character in younger women. As the young women are taught by the older women, they are to:

A. _____ their husbands and their children:

1. By being _____. The young women are to be so transformed by the Word of God that they are renewed in their mind and living a sensible life of intelligent worship that is in _____ the good, acceptable and perfect will of _____.

2. By being morally pure. Young women are to be taught _____. They are to love their husbands and their children by being morally chaste. (The time for such purity is before the marriage even exists.)

3. By being workers at home. The young mothers are to be taught to be dedicated to God by being dedicated to their home. They are to worship God by loving their husbands and children by _____ for them.

4. By being _____. Having heard the doctrines and believed the young woman is to let the Holy Spirit so bear His good fruit within her that it overflows to others. There is true worship to God!

5. By being subject to their own husbands. The godly woman _____ lines up in support of her husband’s God-commanded authority, subjecting herself as is fitting to sound doctrine.

II. Sound _____ must _____ godly character in the pastors, older men, older women, younger women and younger men. As the professing believer fails to be and do what is _____ sound doctrine they give opportunity for the enemies of God to slander the Word of God.

A. We must be transformed by the renewing of our minds that we may _____ our Savior and Lord with _____ worship. This worship is to be lived by our _____ and _____ what is fitting to sound doctrine! In that we remove any just cause by which someone may slander the Word of God (which is to slander our God).

Closing: Come, older women, come and begin to live the life of worship here described. As you go through life actively, naturally encourage the younger women to _____ what is fitting the truth of Christ!

And young women, come, learn, and worship your Savior by loving your husbands and children, being sensible, pure, workers at home, kind, being subject to your own husbands, doing what is fitting the _____.

Come dear family, let it not be said of us that we were a cause for which the Word of God was blasphemed. God help us!

In response to the truth of Christ we must now _____ as a living and holy sacrifice, acceptable to God, which is our spiritual (reasonable, intelligent) offering of worship. We have a high calling! Let us go higher being doers of God's Word. This is true worship! It is for this that Christ died and saved us. _____!
